ORDER:

In the reference read above, the General Administration (Cabinet) Department has requested to submit the proposals on the work distribution between Secretaries and between Head of the Departments, if any.

2. In the first Schedule under Rule 4 of Rules of Business(Part-I) in Andhra Pradesh Government Business Rules & Secretariat instructions, the subject relating to "Railway matters" find place under Union subject, in the distribution of Business to Transport, Roads & Buildings Department. The Railway subject, except ROBs and RUBs, has not been allocated to any Head of the Department of Transport, Roads & Buildings Department. It is felt necessary to entrust the 'Railways' subject to the Transport Commissioner to act as Head of the Department for field coordination and assisting the Department at Secretariat level in order to process and to speed up the railway projects in the State. Further, The Head of the Department will act as a Nodal Agency between the Railway authorities as well as State Government, who will conduct meeting with Peoples' Representatives, Railway Authorities, attend meetings conducted by the Government of India as well as State Government for expeditious action on Railway Projects etc.,

3. Government, after careful consideration of the matter, hereby allocate the "Railways" subject to the Transport Commissioner, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, to act as the concerned Head of the Department for processing proposals of Railways/State Government, and for field coordination and assist the Secretariat Department in matters relating to Railways.

4. The Transport Commissioner, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad shall take necessary action in the matter accordingly.
